

FerroVitreous Arts Presents:

SPATIAL POLITICS

Sunday December 6th, 2009 3:00-9:00 PM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Spatial Politics is a group show highlighting the relationship between human form and spatial construction.

Examining the notion of space as practical constructions of utility, the show seeks to exploit the Map as a representation of a lived environment, creating falsified borders of intangible concepts. Redefining the body as a landscape, the landscape as an object and the Imagination as a location or destination. Combining artists of various mediums and subject matters, the show creates a narrative; from fundamental principles of environmental reconstruction to complex references of neurasthenia Spatial Politics navigates the terrain, both literally and figuratively.

Featuring artists Abbey Golden, Ryan Brennan, Christina Justiz, Ivana Salander & Emma Wasielke

Curated by Allyson Parker

****

In congruence with the holiday season, Spatial Politics will also host a “Recession-Proof Gifting Station” at the event featuring $10 Artist T-Shirts ($5 If you bring your own Tee’s).

For more info contact info@ferrovitreous.com